HOW TO PLAY "DOTS AND BOXES"

Number of Players: 2 players

This classic game requires two players, a piece of paper to draw a grid (or download a Free printable game board), and two pencils, pens, or markers of different colors for each player.

First, you'll need to set up your game board make a grid of dots on your paper it can be any size you want from five by five to fifty by five today or use the free printable game board.

On your turn draw a line connecting any two dots next to each other. They can be in any direction but not diagonal.

Then it's the next player's turn.

Keep drawing until one player draws the four sides on any of those tiny boxes.

A player should make some sort of indication that that is their box you can do initials or just color it in.

Continue drawing lines and completing boxes until the entire grid has been colored in.

Count each player's boxes and the player with the most wins dots.

HOW TO PLAY "TIC TAC TOE"

Number of Players: 2 players

Tic Tac Toe is a fun two-player game where players try to get three of their symbols, either X or o in a row before their opponent can.

To play the game first draw a three-by-three grid (or use the free printable with 9 game grids) so there are nine open spaces in total.

Then decide who will use X's and who will use O's.

How to Play:

Take turns writing your symbol in one of the open spaces on the grid. Try to get three symbols in a row while also blocking your opponent from getting three of their symbols in a row.

Whoever gets three of their symbols in a row first wins.

If no player gets three in a row it's a draw and the game starts over with a new empty grid.

The goal of Charades is to guess the word that one player is acting out, without them speaking or making any sounds.

How to Play:

1. Decide which team will go first and choose one player from that team to be the first actor.
2. The chosen actor chooses a word from the table below and reads the word or phrase silently. They must not show it to anyone.
3. The actor must act out the word using only gestures. They cannot speak, make sounds, or use props.
4. Others try to guess the word based on the gestures. The actor can use gestures to indicate if they are close or far from the correct answer.
5. Continue playing until everyone has had a chance to act, or until all words in the table have been used.
